

Aygul Ismayilova

16 Mammadcafar Cafarov Street | Baku, Azerbaijan AZ 1102

aygul.ismayilova@khazar.org

Profile

A highly motivated, adaptable, and very responsible. Experienced in organization, planning and decision-making. Capable of working effectively in multinational environment.

Education

Khazar University

Baku, Azerbaijan

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) candidate, International Relations

2015- Present

Dissertation topic – The question of Just War Principles and Application to the Nagorno-Karabakh Conflict

ADA University

Baku, Azerbaijan

Master of Arts in Diplomacy and International Affairs (GPA 3.37 out of 4.0) 2012- 2014

- Relevant Coursework: Methods for Policy Analysis, Public International Law,

Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Statistics for Decision Making, Comparative

Politics, IR Theory and Practice

Baku State University

Baku, Azerbaijan

Bachelor of Arts in International Relations (GPA 94 out of 100)

2008- 2012

Professional Experience

Administration of State Historical- Architectural Reserve “Icherisheher” Baku, Azerbaijan
Scientific and Cultural Center August 2018-Present

Specialist

- Participating in the development of the overall tourism and marketing strategies for “Icherisheher”
- Converting Icherisheher and Gala Reserve tourism potential into tailor-made travel products
- Organizing events, conferences, trainings, held by the Administration
- Developing new projects and coordinating their preparation and implementation
- Initiating new strategies to transform cultural heritage into economic opportunities

Khazar University Baku, Azerbaijan
Department of Political Science and International Relations September 2016- Present

Lecturer

Course on History of Europe- This course focuses on developing students' general understanding of European war-prone history from approximately fifth century to the modern times. The study will cover political and diplomatic, intellectual and cultural, social and economic history of Europe.

Course on Conflictology- This course studies violent intrastate and interstate conflicts in terms of theory, research and practice. In this regard, course covers different types of conflicts and their underlying causes and consequences and the main purpose here is figuring out ways of preventing, limiting and ending them.

Course on International Intervention and Protection of Civilians- The major focus of this course is to learn and understand the concept of humanitarian intervention and protection of civilians in armed conflicts. Students will analyze their basic notions and concepts from legal and practical perspectives. It covers various forms and tools international intervention and conflict resolution.

Khazar University Baku, Azerbaijan
Department of Political Science and International Relations June- September 2016

Assistant of the Head of Department

- Did various administrative tasks

Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Baku, Azerbaijan

International Security Department

June-July 2013

Intern

- Assisted in preparation of semi-years' reports by summarizing the content
- Translated documents and wrote analytical briefs

State Committee on Works with Diaspora

Baku, Azerbaijan

Intern

May-June 2012

- Participated in organizing and planning of the official trip of Committee members to Germany, Berlin

- Acted on behalf of the data entry operator in the Western Europe Department

Eastern Mediterranean University

Famagusta, Cyprus

Academic intern

July- August 2010

- Attended in academic language courses: Academic writing, academic presentation, advanced reading, advanced listening, educational technology
- Did a presentation on the energy development: The recent development of Azerbaijan Republic in the oil and gas industry

Technical skills

Languages: Azerbaijani (native), English(fluent), Turkish(fluent), Russian(intermediate)

Software: Windows XP/ Windows 7, Microsoft Word/ Excel/ Powerpoint